Boarding agreement

Should any animal in our care become ill or require medical attention, we reserve the right to administer aid and/ or to use your designated veterinarian. If we cannot reach your vet, we will take your pet to a vet of our choosing. Any and all expenses so incurred shall be paid, by the owner, at the time of check out. We will attempt to contact the owner prior to administering any aid.

We take the dogs out to play in groups. If, at any time, your dog causes harm to any of the other guests or staff, you, the owner, are responsible for any medical bills that may result. You will be contacted immediately upon this happening if it is serious enough to require medical attention.

We understand that spaying or neutering your pet is a personal choice. Since we do take the dogs out in groups there is the chance that unaltered pets may become pregnant or impregnate another dog while kenneled with us. The staff will do everything they can to prevent this from happening. However, if you decide to leave your pet unaltered WCPR cannot be held responsible if this happens.

The daily rate is from the time you drop off your pet until 1:30pm the following day. Should you need to pick them up later than that, there is a late check out fee of $10 per dog and $6 per cat.

Payment is expected at the time of check-out. If you need to have someone else to pick up your pet, payment arrangements will need to be made with the owner prior to check-in.

Shot records are expected to be kept up to date and have to be present at the time of check-in. If it is found that your pet(s) are not current, we will take them to a vet of our choice and the cost will be added to your bill plus a transportation fee.

If your pet becomes belligerent, and acts in a way that is dangerous to itself or the staff, we reserve the right to leave it leashed in their run for safety. If we are not informed ahead of time of this possibility, there will be an additional fee of $10 per day for a special handling fee.

I have read the boarding agreement and have filled out all information to the best of my knowledge.
